PROFILE

As passionate and hard-working student, I aspire towards completing my Bachelor's degree with a strong commitment to gaining practical work experience across various industries. My journey so far has been enriched by extensive volunteer work, where I have dedicated my time and effort to assisting those in need. These experiences have not only honed my leadership skills but also have given a deep sense of community service in me. Furthermore, I pride myself in my multilingual abilities such as Thai and English. I look forward to bringing my diverse abilities and experiences to a professional context
